

In her own words:

"I wanted to do some kind of volunteer work and, when Pat asked me to be part of "The Team", I felt it would be perfect. It would utilize my skills, help me build my confidence in writing, and give me an opportunity to give back to the community."

"Since being on the team, I've broadened my career now by venturing into CART (Communication Access Realtime Translation) work, giving access to people that are deaf and hard of hearing, enabling students and professionals to be able to "hear", to have access to meetings and classrooms."
